27th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 4, 2015

First Reading: Genesis 2:18-24

Psalm 128 "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives".

Second Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11

Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

Genesis and the Gospel of Mark reveal images of faithful love between spouses. The Gospel includes children in the equation. Let us be mindful of those whose marriages are a source of anguish, as well as families whose children are not cared for and respected as they deserve. Open yourself to the power of God's living word to transform us all into faith-filled witnesses to God's great works in all our human relationships.

A Word from Father Victor ...

September 27, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Let us celebrate with the Most Holy Redeemer parish community as they gather for their yearly Fall Festival. Every parish festival is a gathering of persons with their different talents, gifts that they are willing to share with the faith community. That's what makes the church alive. Its members can gather and joyfully work together for the good of the parish. It manifests its communion and celebrates its vision.

Yes, we gather to celebrate our giftedness. Together, in celebration, we gather to give thanks to the giver and share and enjoy our gifts. The most wonderful moments in a festival is watching the liveliness of the community, setting up and preparing for the festival. People come and go, either to work or to bring goodies. You feel the excitement and the anticipation. It is indeed in the setting up and tearing down when you see the community at work, building something with a common goal.

God's grace and God's gifts come to light in moments like the festival. They don't always come in the pathways we always expect. It is an unfortunate natural jealous or resentful reaction when someone isn't coming or things do not happen in the "the expected or designed way." The scripture teaches us that the grace and the presence of the Lord work just the same, even in unexpected people and unexpected ways and circumstances. We cannot just shun others who do not come or do things in the community in the conventional ways. Jesus sees the presence of the Spirit, where we cannot. We are challenged to look more deeply for the effects of the Spirit's working, rather than the externals. Each of us can discover ways we do this.

Let these festivals manifest the joy and strength of the parish.

SUNDAY Cluster Mass Schedules for this weekend and next.

Saturdays remain the same.

Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW) Appalachia & Papal Footprints Christmas Mission

Founded in 1979 by the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, the Appalachia Christmas Mission is a wonderful program that has brought joy to numerous families in Kentucky by encouraging many parishes, religious education / youth groups and CCW groups to collect Christmas gifts for all ages.

In 2013, a new program, Papal Footprints (Shoe Box) Mission, was started. Participants begin with a shoe box or plastic container and fill it with small gifts – such as a religious item, appropriately-aged toy, toothbrush and toothpaste, a treat, etc. – for the young people of Kentucky.

This year's collection dates are October 29 – November 12. For more information on how you or your parish can participate, please see the flyer and brochure. God bless all the people who make Christmas a happier place in Kentucky.
