Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph December 29, 2013

First Reading Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14
Psalm 128 "Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways."

Second Reading Colossians 3:12-21
Gospel: Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

Our gospel today reveals that the Holy Family were refugees, driven from Bethlehem by a cruel ruler, and fearful of returning because of his successor. Yet God was present to them, as the early Christians believed, directing the events in the life of Jesus. The other readings speak more broadly about how family members should act toward one another. In the midst of all their trials, the holy family maintained their bond of unity. What can our families learn from these scriptures today?

A Note From The Pastor

Merry Christmas!

Christmas is a feast of Love, Peace and Joy. The missions of all Christians is to share this love peace and joy with all our brothers and sisters especially the poor. After all, the news of Christ's birth was first announced to poor shepherds.

Down through the centuries, we Christians and our institutions have tried our best to show love, peace and joy to our brothers and sisters with pure motivations and without any strings attached to them. This is the core of Christianity and that is the reason why Jesus was born.

During this Christmas Season many of us may have sent greetings of love, joy and peace to our friends and family. Even after 2000 years of Christ's birth, the purpose of his birth has not been achieved. At the birth of Jesus the angels sang "Glory to God in the Highest and peace to people of good will." It means, in order to have peace, there has to be people of good will. We must ask ourselves are we the people of good will or becoming more impatient, intolerant, arrogant and proud? Proud and selfish people seem to be partly nullifying the effect of Christ's birth. But there are people out there with good will, who possess the gifts of gentleness, forgiveness and hope. They have deep faith in God, they trust in his love and they reach out to people who are troubled, with love, joy and peace. They try to give them hope in the enduring love of God and assures them that God is with us now and always. May the peace, joy and love of Christ reign in your hearts and in your homes at Christmas and always!

Another Year is dawning
 With the chance to start anew
 May you be kinder, wiser
 In all you say and do
 Not so caught up in selfish gain
 That you would fail to see
 The things in life that mean the most
 Cost not a fancy fee
 The warm kind word that you can give
 The outstretched hand to help
 The prayers you pray for those in need
 More precious these than wealth
 You know not what may be ahead
 Of laughter or of tears
 You only need to know each day
 That our Lord is walking near
 You should be thankful for
 This brand new year
 As you humbly pray
 Your hand secure in our dear Lord's
 Each step along the way.

Ideas to Ponder ...

If the heart wanders or is distracted, bring it back to the point quite gently and replace it tenderly in its Master's presence. And even if you did nothing during the whole of your hour but bring your heart back and place it again in our Lord's presence, though it went away every time you brought it back, your hour will be very well employed.

Your Help is NEEDED ...
Creative Ideas

For a door from the old barn, pieces of stained glass a window frame, small stones from the old church, old books, wood from wooden benches, and other items recovered from the church fire. We DON'T want to get rid of the items, we want to find creative ways to use or preserve them as part of our history. Contact the office.

Remember Our Dead ...

All are invited to write the na.m.es of loved ones who have gone before us, in our Book of Remembrance. The book is located by the Baptismal font and will be out the entire month of November. Na.m.es of those written in the book will be remembered at all Masses in November.
