First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24
Psalm 92 "Lord, it is good to give thanks to you".
Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10
Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

In Saint Mark's Gospel, Jesus speaks in parables so that the people can understand what he is saying. Using everyday examples with which his listeners would have been familiar, he creates images in their minds of what the reign of God is like. When you listen to these words, let yourself be drawn into the story as well and eagerly learn what Jesus has to tell us.

A Note From Father Victor

June 7, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. WE can have a better appreciation of the importance of this feast if we have some idea about the meaning of blood offering during the Old Testament times. In the old covenant, a blood sacrifice merely ratified the terms of God's saving action. A blood offering formalizes a covenant agreement between God and man, however in the New Testament, the sacrificial offering of Jesus' body and blood is the sacrificial offering that seals the new covenant to save the entire people. Jesus established this sacrament and, as in the old testament, gave the direction to "do this in memory of me".

It is loving and joyful to remember that one person was willing to die and offer his body and blood to save humankind. More significantly, his sacrifice offers life, eternal life for anyone who believes and follows. By his offering of himself he allows us to "Passover" from death to a new life with the Father. Therefore this celebration is a celebration of life and love. WE always remember and celebrate this reality.

This weekend our Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist (EM's) will be commissioned at Mass. Let us pray for them. Let us pray for the gift of continuing formation in their faith, a formation of the mind and the heart. Let us also continue to pray for unity in our parish community. May the body and blood of Christ unite us to become one community in a joyful journey in faith, discovering God's word and receiving his grace.
