33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 15, 2015

First Reading:	Daniel	12:1-3
Psalms	16	“You are my inheritance, O Lord!”
Second Reading:	Hebrews	10:11-14, 18
Gospel:	Mark	13:24-32

Scriptures that speak of events to come at the end of time are often referred to as apocalyptic. The first reading from Daniel falls into that category, and it uses apocalyptic language to speak of what were present-day realities for the author of that book and his audience. Likewise, Jesus in the Gospel passage calls our attention to the end of time to help us think about our lives and our world in the present age. When listening to these readings, what do you hear God saying to you about your life?

A Word from Father Victor ...

November 8, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This week, as we approach the last few Sundays of our liturgical calendar, we are invited to reflect on two very important points about how we live out our faith.

The scripture readings today teach us the lesson that Christ looks at us by our inner motives and the dispositions of our hearts behind our thoughts and actions. Let us become aware how appearances, possessions, and power influence our thinking and ways in dealing with and attitudes towards other people.

The widows in the first and the gospel readings are very telling of faith that is deep and trusting. This is the second lesson we learn this week and a very radical one: we must live by the obedience of faith, one that shows acts of charity and self-giving. IN the readings, these women were not only widows but also poor, very poor. Even when they lived in poverty, they trusted in the love of the Lord and offered their "best", and gave all that they had. IN our modern way of thinking they risked too much.

But in the terms of Jesus, that is what faith is about. Himself he risked his life for us trusting and confident of a saving Father and God. These women and Jesus showed us true faith that is trusting, self giving and self sacrificing.

Again we are challenged to imitate their faith and their love. God will see us not by how much we gave and how much we have done, rather we will be seen how our gifts reflect our lifestyle, our whole being, our heart, our soul and our mind.

Are you drawn to join the Catholic Church or seeking renewal in your Catholic faith - we are now taking registrations for the next RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) class. Call the St. Patrick (507.334.6002) or Most Holy Redeemer 507.364.7981 to register.

Help Preserve A Piece Of Our History

Advertising Backdrop recovered from Old Social Hall attic - Size 10'x14'

This backdrop and another found in the old hall were professionally done by Twin Cities Scenic Company. We contacted U. of M. professors who have a collection of items done by Twin Cities Scenic to find out what needs to be done. In order to preserve backdrops of this caliber they need to be professionally cleaned and preserved. We chose to preserve this backdrop because it is in good shape and the information on it. The cost could be as much as $2,000. We have another backdrop but it has some water damage and we do not know the cost to preserve it. Donations are being collected to preserve this backdrop and hang it in our Social Hall. If you can help by making a donation, please contact the office or put your donation in the weekend collection in an envelope marked 'BACKDROP RESTORATION'. Thank you.

ACCW Advent Retreat

Saturday, December 5

St. Peter, Mendota

Advent is a beautiful liturgical season when we reflect on how the Lord Jesus came into our lives and saved us. The Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women has a tradition of coming together on the first Saturday of Advent for a time of retreat and reflection.

This year's Advent retreat begins at 8:30 a.m. with prayer and continental breakfast, followed by a program by Father Domenic J. Roscioli, a nationally known speaker from Kenosha, Wisconsin, and concludes at noon with Mass. It's also a chance to do some Christmas shopping as we have a number of vendors available that day!

Cost is only $15. Please fill out a registration form located on the kiosk, and return it with payment to ACCW, 328 Kellogg Blvd. W., St. Paul, MN 55102.

Are you struggling with an abortion?
