First Reading Isaiah 49:3, 5-6
Psalm 40 "Here I am Lord; I come to do your will."

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:1-3
Gospel: John 1:29-34

In this Gospel from John, we hear John the Baptist's side of the story of Jesus' baptism. And John has seen the Spirit come down upon Jesus. We have all been baptized with the same Spirit. As you ponder these readings, what do you hear the spirit calling you to do?

St. Vincent de Paul Society

We are collecting money for St. Vincent de Paul Society in Faribault to help out the needy in our area. If your family would like to donate, you can make the check to either St. Patrick - with 'St. Vincent' on the memo line or make the check directly to St. Vincent and drop it in the collection basket. WE will make sure that St. Vincent receives all donations. Thank you (see KC Korner for information on a fundraiser.)

A Note From The Pastor

The first thought that might occur to us today is that this feast is rather sudden. We have been commemorating the beautiful events of the infancy of Jesus since the day of Christmas. We have been concentrating on His birth and then on His manifestation to the Magi and the gentiles. Today we see Him as a grown up man presenting himself to John the Baptist for baptism; 30 years have passed silently. For thirty years Jesus led a hidden and uneventful life of a country carpenter.

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord concludes the Christmas Season and we begin a short period of ordinary time till Ash Wednesday when Lent begins. The Baptism of Jesus was His mission statement. He and His Father have a vision for humanity. From this vision flows His mission. Today's event dramatically describes the beginning of Jesus' messianic life of service to all people. His mission was to save humanity by becoming one with humanity. His Baptism of Repentance with other people in the river of Jordan was a strong statement of solidarity with the sinful humanity. It is part of his Kenosis — the self emptying. Though the earth remained indifferent at his baptism, the heaven could not. The heaven was opened up and the whole divine family was present at the scene. The third person of the Holy Trinity appeared in the form of a dove, while the voice of the Father resounded affirming the second person and approved His mission. So the baptism of Jesus was a Trinitarian event just like his incarnation and resurrection.

Welcome back and Happy New Year! The new year of 2014 has arrived with a chill. We've missed the students and are happy to be back in school this week. We are coming to the close of our second quarter of school. Students will be finalizing projects and participating in final assessments for the quarter as well as mid-year assessments for K-3rd grades.

This week we held our Geography Bee. Students in 3-8th grades are tested on their local, national and world-wide knowledge of geology. The questions are difficult! We will have a photo and announcement of winners next week!

Family Fun Night is just around the corner - January 24, 2014!

There will also be more games and even a photo booth! We look forward to a great event!

Knitters Welcome!

The Divine Mercy Prayer Shawl knitting group will meet on Tuesday, January 21st from 10-11 am at Pleasant Manor in their Activity Room. If you are interested in knitting or learning to knit please join us in this rewarding ministry. All knitters are welcome. We will provide the yarn for the shawls and then they are given to those in need. We also have many knitters who are unable to join us and chose to knit at home. These shawls are blessed at the 8:30 am Mass at Divine Mercy Church on the first Saturday of each month.

Another Year is dawning
With the chance to start anew
May you be kinder, wiser In all you say and do
Not so caught up in selfish gain
That you would fail to see
The things in life that mean the most
Cost not a fancy fee
The warm kind word that you can give
The outstretched hand to help
The prayers you pray for those in need
More precious these than wealth
You know not what may be ahead
Of laughter or of tears
You only need to know each day
That our Lord is walking near
You should be thankful for This brand new year
As you humbly pray
Your hand secure in our dear Lord's
Each step along the way.
