2nd Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday April 27, 2014

First Reading	Acts	2:42-47
Psalm 118	"Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting"
Second Reading	1 Peter	1:3-9
Gospel:	John	20:19-31

The focus this weekend is often drawn toward doubting Thomas in the Gospel reading, but we may want to pay attention to some details from Jesus' first appearance the week before. After blessing them with peace, Jesus tells the disciples that they are sent just as the Father sent Jesus. Then he gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive sins. Thomas comes later, but by professing his faith he too will receive these gifts. Will we, who come even later, receive these gifts and be sent like the first disciples? What is God telling you in these readings?

Happy Easter! Thank you for sharing this day with us.

A Note From The Pastor

HE IS RISING AGAIN

Christianity is a resurrection religion. It believes that the risen Christ has turned all our sunsets into dawns. Signs of new life can be noticed on Easter Sunday. People come prepared to light a new fire, to sing music, to light candles. Newborn babies are baptized. But let us not misread these signs. These are signs not only that Jesus rose from the dead but also that he is rising again. He is rising in each of us and in the Body of his people again and again. If "being brought back to true life with Christ" (Col. 3:1) is to mean anything, it means that the silver thread of resurrection runs through believers of our time, freeing them to a new life relationship with God and to a new bond of love with others empowering them to realize their own potential in a way sustaining them through struggles and trials, hardships and pains of human life until they triumph. Every time we experience new life in Christ, in the experience Jesus is rising again.

We experience new life of the risen Jesus when we are forgiven by God our sins and reconciled with him. We experience the new life of the risen Jesus when we are able to pull through our personal Calvaries, such as severe depression, because we trusted in the Lord. We experience new life of the risen Jesus when we are able to overcome even permanent physical handicaps and live our lives to the fullest. We experience the new life of the risen Jesus not only as individuals but also as a community. Whenever individuals gather together to socialize, to share and to celebrate the Eucharist and to worship, we experience a new life and a new Spirit. Jesus rises in us through the community experience.

Therefore, Jesus is rising again and again. We don't need to wait until we die to share in the power of Christ's resurrection. We can have our personal and communal resurrection here and now.

A Holy and Happy Easter to ALL!

Father George Kallumkudy, CMI

Most Holy Redeemer Catholic School

(PreK through 8th Grade)
205 Vine Ave West, Montgomery
(507) 364-7383 (mosthrs.org)

Blessed Holy Week to you! Most Holy Redeemer students in 7-8th grade presented the Passion program on Wednesday as our final reflection as a school family. May the gift of the sacrifice of Christ be in your hearts as we gather together at church and with family for our Easter celebration.

Easter Children's Prayer -

Jesus, you have overcome death
And conquered every fear I could imagine
Help me to live each day
remembering that You are alive,
That You are bigger than anything
or any situation
And that Your power is real
Jesus, you're my hero and I'm walking with you.
Amen.

Over the long days of Lent, students focused on improving themselves, both in their actions and in their academic progress. Students were recognized for working hard on their reading, improving homework or study skills, and being kind or helpful as we all strive to be more like Jesus! In addition, we recognized our Honor Roll recipients - with many new students working hard to get on either the A or B honor roll for 3rd quarter. Students will also be recognized in an ad in the Montgomery Messenger.

During Easter break, don't forget to ask families to support our Spring fundraisers -

HRS SPRING FUNDRAISERS:

- Spring Flowers & Catalog Sales - Now through April 21 for all of your floral planting and spring fun gift needs. (Forms needed by April 21)
- Home & School Raffle - Our H & S raffle tickets were sent home. Ask a neighbor, sell to a friend, and help raise essential dollars for our school. More tickets in the office. (Tickets needed by April 25, sold or unsold)

- SCRIIP Spring Cards - Get your Mother's Day, Easter, Wedding & Graduation gift cards at HRS! We have extra on hand for your easy shopping.
