20th Sunday in Ordinary Time August 17, 2014

First Reading Isaiah 56:1, 6-7
Psalms 67 "O God, let all the nations praise you."
Second Reading Romans 11:13-15, 29-32
Gospel: Matthew 15:21-28

Sometimes our scriptures seem as if they were taken from today's headlines. The people of Israel in Isaiah's time and in Jesus' time had difficulty dealing with foreigners in their midst, just as we often seem to do in our country today. Yet when we listen closely to these readings, we can discern God's response to them. How should that inform our response in the here and now?

Pope Francis reveals top 10 secrets to happiness

In an interview published in part in the Argentine weekly "Viva" July 27, the pope listed his Top 10 tips for bringing greater joy to one's life:

1. "Live and let live." Everyone should be guided by this principle, he said, which has a similar expression in Rome with the saying, "Move forward and let others do the same."

2. "Be giving of yourself to others." People need to be open and generous toward others, he said, because "if you withdraw into yourself, you run the risk of becoming egocentric. And stagnant water becomes putrid."

3. "Proceed calmly" in life. The pope, who used to teach high school literature, used an image from an Argentine novel by Ricardo Güiraldes, in which the protagonist — gaucho Don Segundo Sombra — looks back on how he lived his life.

4. "A healthy sense of leisure." The pleasures of art, literature and playing together with children have been lost, he said. Even though many parents work long hours, they must set aside time to play with their children; work schedules make it "complicated, but you must do it," he said.

5. Sundays should be holidays. Workers should have Sundays off because "Sunday is for family,".

6. Find innovative ways to create dignified jobs for young people. "We need to be creative with young people. If they have no opportunities, they will get into drugs" and be more vulnerable to suicide, he said. "It's not enough to give them food," he said. "Dignity is given to you when you can bring food home" from your own labor.

7. Respect and take care of nature. Environmental degradation "is one of the biggest challenges we have," he said. "I think a question that we're not asking ourselves is: 'Isn't humanity committing suicide with this indiscriminate and tyrannical use of nature?'"

8. Stop being negative. "Needing to talk badly about others indicates low self-esteem. That means, 'I feel so low that instead of picking myself up, I have to cut others down,'" the pope said. "Letting go of negative things quickly is healthy."

9. Don't proselytize; respect others' beliefs. "We can inspire others through witness so that one grows together in communicating. But the worst thing of all is religious proselytism, which paralyzes: 'I am talking with you in order to persuade you,' No. Each person dialogues, starting with his and her own identity. The church grows by attraction, not proselytizing," the pope said.

10. Work for peace. "We are living in a time of many wars," he said, and "the call for peace must be shouted. Peace sometimes gives the impression of being quiet, but it is never quiet. Peace is always proactive" and dynamic.
