Third Sunday of Easter April 19, 2015

First Reading:	Acts	3:13-15, 17-19
Psalm 4	"Lord, let your face shine on us".
Second Reading:	1 John	2:1-5a
Gospel:	Luke	24:35-48

In this Gospel story we hear about another of Jesus' post-resurrection appearances, this time from the perspective of Luke. Jesus thinks it important to explain the scriptures to his disciples yet again, so that they might understand and accept what has happened to him. Let us allow our minds to be opened to understanding the scriptures as we hear God's holy word.

A Note From Father Victor ....

April 12, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our Christian community continues to celebrate and proclaim the good news of Christ's resurrection which means restoration of life and the promise of eternity not only for Jesus but also for those who believe and follow Jesus. It means a lot for us, his followers, knowing that we do not live our lives just for the here and now but more importantly working for and looking forward to a more meaningful and joyful life in God's kingdom.

So Easter means a lot for us. It means our life. We can hear from the scriptures this weekend the story about how the resurrection experience changed the lives of Jesus' disciples forever. They were "fired up" by the experience and powerfully bearing witness to the risen Lord. We also hear of Jesus returning for the absent Thomas and invited him to overcome his doubt. WE hear also about how this community of disciples bonded around the faith they behold.

This speaks a lot to us. We claim to be a community of faithful believers. WE are challenged to grow stronger and be nourished by the resurrection of Jesus. WE have to continue to journey in deepening our faith. We express and affirm one another in our worship life and are enriched by it. Let the joy of the resurrection encourage us to witness to our faith and proclaim it. They are all in the very essence of who we are as a church.

Let the peace that Christ shares with us become an active work for transformation. Christ's peace is meant for action towards reconciliation and restoration. Let us share Christ's peace to one another and be a witness to his love and justice.

TWO DAYS!!!

The Lord is asking us to give only 2 days out of the 365 to gather and remember and celebrate with gratitude the great and loving sacrifice for our salvation. The two days or 48 hours is spread throughout the year, or once a week for an hour, yet we dare to find excuses not to attend Mass - a life saving act for us.

Now, if you want to get technical - there are 52 weeks in a year. This means that 52 of 8760 hours of our year would be spent giving thanks to the Lord for all he has given us. We would LOVE to see you at Mass with us each week!

First Communion Bible Available ...

First Communion Bibles, from Saint Benedict Press, are available for First Communion Gifts for $14. You can get either a Burgundy or Ivory cover. Bibles can be seen in the office or talk to Tracy.

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Last Saturday, two St. Patrick members (Karin Bias & Casandra Steeves) and one from Most Holy Redeemer, Montgomery, were welcomed into full communion in the Catholic Faith. They went through an RCIA program, led by John & Rosemary Thuente, from Most Holy Redeemer. Following are a few words from the RCIA candidates about their experience...

* "Now that we have completed our Sunday evening RCIA classes(starting from before Advent) Let's set up a time, because we still want to keep coming."

* "Better prepare for a large crowd to attend RCIA classes next year because I am already finding those who are interested." (The JOY in being brought into the Church is so evident, it is such a witness it speaks for itself. People recognizing the great joy may say "I also want to find that great PEACE and JOY that you have. Can you help me find it?")

* "I felt the Lord in my heart the second I walked into my first RCIA class. Both John and Rosemary were wonderful teachers. Coming from a Lutheran background they were extremely knowledgeable, and answered EVERY question I had (even the silly ones ;) ) After all the training and reading we went through I was still unsure if I would feel anything. After receiving my first holy Eucharist, I can truly say I now have the Lord in my heart fully. I cannot stop smiling. I have nothing but wonderful things to say about my RCIA training, and I would be more than willing to assist in welcoming and helping to guide others.

RCIA Classes begin again this fall. If interested in becoming Catholic or know someone who is, please contact the office or Father to get on the list.
