19th Sunday in Ordinary Time August 11, 2013

First Reading	Wisdom	18:6-9
Psalms 33	"Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own."
Second Reading	Hebrews	11:1-2, 8-19
Gospel:	Luke	12:32-48

Our readings this weekend sound like they belong to Advent. The book of Wisdom praises those Jewish ancestors who had been waiting faithfully, and Jesus uses the parable to praise those who are ready for the Master's coming. Indeed, why should we prepare ourselves for the end times only during the Advent season? The point of the Gospel is that we should always be ready for God's coming. What have you done lately to prepare?

A Note From The Pastor ....

Prosperity knits a man to the world. He feels that he is finding his place in it, while really it is finding its place in him. His increasing reputation, his widening circle of acquaintances, his sense of importance, build up in him a sense of being really at home on Earth.

Prosperity and success can enable the world to take up residence in the center of our being. An abundance of things and wealth can provide a false sense of security. Soon the heart is tempted and begins to lean toward these things for support and meaning. Stitch by stitch, a knitting is done, until it is no longer clear which possesses which. The world finds its place in us. Jesus reminds us that "where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

An affluent farmer had a bumper crop and needed more space to store all of his grain and goods. He decided to build bigger barns, reasoning "and I will say to my soul, Soul you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease." That rich man was the fool in Jesus' parable, for soon after saying this he died.

Here on earth, we are strangers and exiles. Our Father refreshes us on the journey with some pleasant inns, but will not encourage us to mistake them for home. Here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come. Our common wealth is in heaven.

Fr. George Kallumkalkudy, CMI
