Fifth Sunday of Easter May 5, 2012

First Reading	Acts	10:25-26
Psalm 51	"The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power."
Second Reading	1 John	4:7-10
Gospel:	John	15:9-17

Each year on this Sixth Sunday of Easter, the readings begin to prepare us for Pentecost by showing the Holy Spirit working through the leaders of the early church. Today Saint Peter tells us that, even though Jesus has made him earthly head of the church, Peter too is just beginning to understand the surprising ways in which God intends the community to grow. Saint John, in both his First Letter and Gospel, reminds us that Jesus' great commandment is that we love one another. Only when we love one another, as Jesus has taught us and showed us, are we truly his friends.

St. Patrick Church is looking for a clean, functional, metal frame, folding cot – in good condition - that we can have at church for emergencies. If anyone has one they wish to donate, contact the office.

A Note From The Pastor....

On Saturday, May 5, 2012 Luke Marquard, son of Steve and Mary Marquard, was ordained to the Order of Deaconate for the Roman Catholic Church at the Basilica of St. Mary in Minneapolis. Deacon Luke hails from the Faribault community, graduating from Bethlehem Academy. I met Deacon Luke in July 1999, when he was home on summer break from Butler University. After a few years publishing a fraternity magazine in Chicago, earning a Masters Degree from Notre Dame in education and teaching in an inner city school in Denver, he finally began his seminary formation five years ago (and he has one left!). He has a heart full of joy and eagerly serves. With a deep love of Christ and his Body I am confident that his ministry will touch many people. Please keep Deacon Marquard in your prayers as he begins his ministry as a Deacon and begins his immediate preparations for priestly ordination.

He joined nine others in being ordained. In one year, God willing, Deacon Luke will be ordained to the Order of Priesthood. I hope all ten get ordained. They will be busy! Ten is a good number, but with this year's three, that averages to only 6.5 priests. With numbers up a bit and with the Archdiocese continuing to implement the Strategic Plan of 2010 the Archdiocese has begun to better place priests where they are needed. Indeed about six weeks ago, I received a phone call from the Archbishop's office. I was asked if we wanted a third priest here. (Back in 1999, I was one of 7 priests who served in Faribault. Can you name the other six?) I turned down the offer.

Learn why I turned down the offer (and who the other priests were) on Tuesday, May 8, 2012. We will have a "State of the Parish" presentation. In addition to looking at the highlights from this year, we will look at how we might live as a parish giving Glory to God. Today's Gospel has Jesus' prayer: "By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

Finally, today we conclude our third week of First Communion celebrations. This week we celebrate at Divine Mercy with a special Mass at 2:00 pm. Many traditions have developed over the centuries. In Scotland, boys wear a kilt; in Latin America they wear stylized uniforms; and in Switzerland both boys and girls wear a white robe. Here girls tend to wear a white dress and veil. Like our grandparents from Eastern Europe, children from Mexico hold a bible and rosary in their hands during their first communion. While traditions come and go, what truly remains is the holy Mystery and Awe of receiving the Sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood, whether for the first time or the 4732nd Sunday in a row (except for illness) as for Florence Feldmann of Kenyon. May we all approach the altar of God with the faith and love our children manifest in receiving Their first Holy Communion.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Kevin Finnegan

We are $1,112.42 short of our Goal! Please help us if you can!

We are at 87.5% ($7,829.58) of our $8,942 goal! IF we make our goal we get $2,235.50 back for our parish. Thank you to all who pledged so far.

It's Grand Party Time ...

The Grand Party will be held Saturday, May 19, 2012 in our social hall. Tickets are $60 each. Divine Mercy Catholic School (DMCS)

The school year is quickly winding down as students and staff prepare for the summer break. You can continue to support the school over the summer by one of the following ways:

1. Dine out at Boston's is the second and fourth Tuesday of each month between 11 am and 8 pm. Boston's graciously donates a percentage of their proceeds on these nights to BA and DMCS. Delivery is counted towards as well.
2. Script is a great way to support the school, Place orders over summer at the school office.
3. Target Red Card - by designating DMCS as your school as part of Target's Take Charge of Education, 1% of your purchases will be donated to DMCS. Since inception, DMCS has received over $20,000 from the program.

All of the above are simple easy ways to support our Catholic School.

May began in honor of Mary. Our Kindergarten and 8th grade classes gathered at church yesterday to honor Mary. As a Catholic I have always felt privileged as a woman. Catholic admiration of Mary and her role reflects on the beautiful role of all women in God's plan. She was chosen and said yes to God. Honoring Mary is a lovely way to begin the month in prayer and reflection. Our Kindergarten & 8th grade classes did a wonderful job!

LITTLE LAMBS BEGAN WITH MAY BASKETS! An old tradition was celebrated at HRS on Tuesday. Our Little Lambs class delivered baskets to teachers and staff around the school. I remember running around our neighborhood with special baskets for friends and neighbors, too. It was fun to see this tradition brought back!

SPECIAL BLESSINGS TO OUR 2nd GRADE CLASS who will be receiving their 1st Communion this weekend. Mrs. Trcka has worked with them throughout this year to help prepare them for their 1st Reconciliation and 1st Eucharist. Please keep all 1st Communicants in your prayers this weekend.

RESERVE YOUR SPOT IN LITTLE LAMBS EARLY! Little Lambs is filling up, so if you haven't registered, please call to reserve your child's spot in Little Lambs. 507-364-7383

GUARDIAN ANGELS BUILDING FUNDS: Most Holy Redeemer has kicked off our annual pledge drive to support building and maintenance needs at the school. Past donors were sent letters directly, however, additional gifts of support are welcome. We need to replace the wall and floor in our kitchen for licensure. In all, we will have about $10,000 in maintenance repairs and needs next year. Please consider a gift.

KUDOS:

- Kindergarten & 8th Grade Classes – for leading us in honoring Mary.
- Jenny Houn – for coordinating our Spring flower fundraiser with Noelle Kalina, Laura Odenthal and Lisa Novak
- Mrs. Rynda, Mrs. Woratschka – for the great Spring Concert & Art Show!
- Deb. Trcka, Catherine Fischer, and Sandy Zellmer - for coordinating our Garage Sale fundraiser! Special thanks to everyone who donated items and to parents who volunteered!

Blessings, Mindy Reeder – Principal

Hot Topics: Cool Talk series: “How Should a Catholic Vote?” Two University of St. Thomas Law Professors will address this question in the final discourse of St. Thomas’s Cool Talk” series. Sponsored by the Murphy Institute for Catholic Thought, Law and Public Policy, the series of public discourses explored both the Catholic positions and some challenging perspectives on major policy issues likely to be the focus of debate in the 2012 fall elections. Topics this year included: same sex marriage, embryo rights and stem cell research, immigration policies, religious liberty and the HHS mandate—just to name a few. Stephen Heaney, professor of Philosophy, and Bernie Brady, Professor and Chair of Theology, will engage at Thursday night’s capstone forum. The discourse is moderated by former St. Paul City Councilmember, Patrick Harris. Free and open to the public, the program is Thursday, May 3, 7:00-8:15 p.m., in the John Roach Center Auditorium (JRC 126) on St. Thomas’s St. Paul campus. Light refreshments served following the program. Please register at www.stthomas.edu/murphyinstitute Application has been made for Continuing Legal Education credit.

THE CHRISTIAN ALPHABET.....

Although things are not perfect
Because of trial or pain
Continue in thanksgiving
Do not begin to blame.

Even when the times are hard
Fierce winds are bound to blow
God is forever able
Hold on to what you know.

Imagine life without his love
Joy would cease to be
Keep thanking Him for all the things
Love imparts to thee.

Move out of “Camp Complaining”
No weapon that is known
On earth can yield the power
Praise can do alone.

Quit looking at the future
Redeem the time at hand
Start each day with worship
To “thank” is a command

Until we see him coming
Victorious in the sky
We’ll run the race with gratitude
eXalting God most high
Yes, there will be good times and yes some will be bad, but Zion waits in glory, where none are ever sad.
