2nd Sunday in Lent March 1, 2015

First Reading: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a
Psalm 116 "I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living."
Second Reading: Romans 8:31b-34
Gospel: Mark 9:2-10
Even though God spared Abraham's son, Isaac, God's own Son, Jesus, was not spared, but rather handed over for the benefit of us all. Yet already the Gospel gives us a hint of the resurrection to come. When we hear the readings, let us ponder what "rising from the dead" means in our lives.

First Communion Gift Available ...

First Communion Bibles, from Saint Benedict Press, are available for First Communion Gifts for $14. You can get either a Burgundy or Ivory cover. Bibles can be seen in the office or talk to Tracy.

A Note From Father Victor

February 22, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Now we begin our journey through Lent. It is not just a joyless struggle against temptation. It is not a sad and shameful admission of our sinful nature and the need for redemption. It is not just about a painful battle against the evil and a helpless cry for help. It is about the urge to be ready for the coming of the kingdom as Jesus had proclaimed. Lent is a preparation, a strengthening, looking forward to the new life of Easter. The kingdom of God is at hand! This is the proclamation of Jesus that is the moving force and the reason of Lent! We are not just fighting for nothing. We are working for the kingdom of God!

Our Lenten practices are meant to attune the heart, discipline the body and strengthen the soul towards God. Fasting is a practice to allow us to gain control of our senses and the freedom to choose towards the good. The good works that we do will form the heart to become sensitive for others rather than on ourselves. Prayer opens the heart and soul to the Lord and invites us to reflection on the words and works of the Lord. Indeed Lent is a season of tending towards God, embracing the gift of repentance and receiving worthily the gift of Redemption.

This Lent, how about planning not just to choose what to give up but also what to give. Let us think about some good works going beyond the pleasure of "feeling good ourselves" but allow the extension of one's boundaries in order to accommodate the good of the other.

Yes, this is a season to reflect on Jesus Christ, the Most Holy Redeemer!

Stations of the Cross – 6:45 p.m. Each
Wednesdays in Lent (except March 25th)

Do you want to deepen your faith?

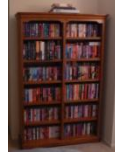

St. Patrick is offering you a chance to deepen and examine your faith through our Faith Focus Group. The group is for any age. Matthew Kelly spent four years coming up with the program we will use. Kim Chmelik will facilitate the group meetings. We will watch the video and discuss the materials. If you are unable to attend on Sundays, Kim will be offering a session on Saturdays after Mass or you can access the entire program online to go through on your own. To view the workbook, stop in the office. If interested call Kim at 507.333.0297 or kchmelik@earthlink.net,

Next meeting: Sunday, March 1st at 9:00 a.m.

It is still cold outside so OUR FAITH FORMATION YOUTH ARE STILL COLLECTING COATS, SCARVES, MITTENS, & HATS!!! Put items in the Coat Drop box located by the display case.

Don't forget about St. Patrick when you go on vacation. We need your continued support throughout the year. Set up electronic withdrawal for donations or take care of it before you go.

St. Patrick 'Librarian' ...

We would like someone to manage our Library – alphabetize books, restock books, weed out duplicates. If you are able to take on this task, please contact the office.
