Baptism of the Lord

January 11, 2015

First Reading:	Isaiah	55:1-11
Isaiah 12	"You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation"
Second Reading:	1 John	5:1-9
Gospel:	Mark	1:7-11

On this celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, one obvious way to interpret the readings is through the lens of our own baptism. The first reading (another Christmas reading from Isaiah) starts off with water and an invitation to come to the Lord. The second reading, from the First Letter of John, is full of baptismal imagery. And, of course, the Gospel, from Mark, the briefest account we have of Jesus' baptism. So let's put on our 'baptismal glasses,' and discover what the readings have to say about our baptism.

A Note From Father Victor ....

January 4, 2014

Dear brothers and sisters,
Christmas greetings to everyone and may we all have a prosperous new year ahead.

Let us continue to enjoy reflecting on the meaning of the nativity scene for all of us. This week we remember the long and arduous journey of the three magi coming from the east searching for the new born Jesus. The long days of travel in the midst of bad weather conditions passing through the dessert and the rough accommodations will make us wonder why it was so very important for them to see the baby Jesus. Let us wonder about the transformations that happened to them when they met the baby Jesus. The meeting was "satisfactory to them." It was, as we will say it "worth the trouble". Their encounter with the baby Jesus whom they searched, made the Magi "no longer at ease" with their former ways, but they were now led to a new life offered by their encounter with God in the baby Jesus. Even to the magi, "the Word was made Flesh."

Take note of that beautiful scene in the manger where the kings appear with their camels, as draped in bright, rich, royal garments, a detail that stands out in contrast to the marked poverty and simplicity of the baby's surroundings. Take note of the extravagant gifts they bring: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. There is certainly something to think and reflect prayerfully on the imagery in the gospel. Take note further that the Magi made a humble gesture of homage before the baby Jesus. Let us wonder about what this scenery tells us.

How does the story of Jesus affect us? Does it have an impact in our lives? If yes, how? If not, why?

The answer to those questions somehow will set our faith journey through the new year. How is God manifested in our lives? How does God manifest himself in our day to day living? Are we aware of God's epiphany to us?

O come let us adore him, Christ, our Lord!zx

G.R.O.W. Survey

This is the last weekend you are able to help in our pastoral planning process by completing a survey. You can access it online or complete a paper copy after Mass. Online surveys can be accessed through January 5th <http://fluidsurveys.com/s/stpatrickshieldsvillifaribault/>

Faith Formation News ...

Do you want to deepen your faith?

St. Patrick is offering you a chance to deepen and examine your faith through our Faith Focus Group. The group is for any age. Matthew Kelly spent four years coming up with the program we will use. Kim Chmelik will facilitate group meetings of those who wish to discuss the materials. If you are unable to attend on Sundays, Kim will be offering a session on Saturdays after Mass or you can access the entire program online and do it on your own. If you would like to view the workbook, stop in the office. If interested call Kim at 507.333.0297 or kchmelik@earthlink.net,

Next meeting: Sunday, January 4, 9 a.m.

We NEED Substitute Teachers for our Faith Formation program. There are a couple weeks in February that we especially need someone. Classes are Wednesday evenings 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Materials will be all prepared.

St. Patrick Faith Formation Students are still collecting coats, hats, scarves, and mittens for St. Vincent de Paul in Faribault, through the cold months. St. Vincent was very pleased with the number of NEW items that came in from St. Patrick with tags still on them. Please bring new or very gently used items to St. Patrick and put them in the COAT BOX, found in the narthex by the display case. They especially need of kids coats.

Check it out! St. Patrick's is on Facebook! Are you on Facebook? Then search for the Church of St. Patrick, Shieldsville and be sure to Like us. Also, if you have any photos of the church or church activities that you think would be useful for the page, or if you have suggestions about constructing the page, send a note to Martha Wallace at mwwallacehome@gmail.com

Marge Sowa is spending a few months recuperating with her daughter in Washington. She would love to hear from her 'family' at St. Patrick. Please send her a card or note when you get a minute. Marge & Mark's address through April will be: Marge Sowa, % Peggy Klemens, 12923 - 231st Way SE, Kent Washington, 98030.

School resumes on Monday, January 5, in our new year of 2015. As we embrace the new year ahead and complete our second quarter of the year, students and staff at HRS invite you to join us in prayer. This school year we will continue to focus on prayer and share with you this prayer for "Peace Within":

May today there be peace within.

May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.

May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith.

May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you

May you be confident knowing you are a child of God.

Let this presence settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise and love.

It is there for each and every one of us.

- attributed to St. Thérèse of Lisieux and St. Theresa of Avila

In January we have a busy month planned. Catholic Schools' week begins January 23 with the HRS Family Fun Night! Please plan to join us on Friday, January 23, 2015 at the American Legion from 7 – 11 p.m. for music, games and fellowship. We will be kicking off our "Catholic United Raffle" during Family Fun Night with chances for you to win a car, a vacation get-away, and much more! Looking forward to sharing time together in 2015.
