16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 10, 2016

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10a
Psalm 15 "He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."

Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28
Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

Over the years, a number of different interpretations have been proposed concerning the Gospel story of Mary sitting at Jesus' feet while Martha is bustling about. Our reading from Genesis sets the context, however. Hospitality is indeed important and has its rewards. Perhaps where Martha crosses the line is in grumbling about it. How about us? What is our attitude when we are called upon to serve others? What do you think it should be?

If you or someone in your family would like a visit from Father or communion brought to them, either call the office or take a salmon colored 'Sick Call' form located on the kiosk. Fill it out and drop it in the collection or give it to Father after Mass.

A Word from Father Victor ...

July 16, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Who is my neighbor? The lawyer asked Jesus in the gospel reading this weekend. Jesus used a parable to send the powerful message that love transcends boundaries. It serves anyone who is in need, even with different orientations, political viewpoints, race or age. The question was asking for a criteria whom to help. Jesus' answer: everyone. Here is the radical call of Jesus: Love one another. Here is the challenge: are we ready to reach out to everyone and care for those who need help. Am I ready and willing to open my self for others?

When Jesus loves, he opens his arms on the cross. He goes beyond his personal boundaries and exceeds expectations. His love is so far reaching. Sometimes fear overcomes the ability to love and to serve. There is fear for taken advantaged, or being rejected or laughed at. Jesus overcame all these fear and his love made him courageous. How deep is your love?

Our world needs that kind of love that Jesus showed us. And when he showed that love he was desiring that his witnesses embrace that same love and share that love to everyone. His love can overcome division, his care can heal hurts. His compassion bring about reconciliation and peace. His truthfulness produces justice. His love is all that we need to bring happiness and peace in our world.

WE need to continue to work on learning and living his word and his life.
