Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, Joseph December 27, 2015

First Reading: 1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28
Psalm 84 "Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord."

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24
Gospel: Luke 2:41-52

The Gospel tells a story of the worry and deep concern Mary and Joseph experience upon learning their young son is missing. Parents who have ever lost their child, even briefly, can appreciate the worry of Jesus' parents. As you read the scripture readings, let us ask for God's strength and comfort for all families, but especially those that are undergoing hardship.

A Word from Father Victor ...

December 20, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Now we move closer to the celebration of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. We continue to prepare our hearts to receive Jesus, not only this Christmas but throughout our lives. The gospel reading this weekend tells us of Jesus being called "Lord" before his birth and of two mothers who have put their faith in God.

We have a story of two mothers-to-be who both recognized and praised the God who is so active in their lives. These two women, so unexpectedly got pregnant, recognized the will of God in their lives and were so open to the plans of God.

They too must have planned something for their lives. The young Mary, getting excited to be getting married to Joseph and Elizabeth, planning her life of old age with husband Zechariah. But events turned around and things happened entirely so different from their plans and thoughts. Yet, they trusted that in the midst of what was happening, it was all in the plan of God. Their hearts were open, their souls were at peace.

How often and how deep is our trust, that in everything that happens in our life, God's will is there? How open are we that "God's will" be done in our lives?

On Thursday we will celebrate the birth of Jesus. Are you ready to open your hearts to listen and receive what he will tell us and offer us?

Help Preserve A Piece Of Our History

We were able to recover this Advertising Stage Backdrop which is in very good shape from Old Social Hall attic - Size 10'x14'

in addition to a scenic backdrop. Both were professionally done by Twin Cities Scenic Company (now out of business but nationally known.) We contacted U. of M. professors who have a collection of items done by Twin Cities Scenic to find out what needs to be done. In order to preserve backdrops of this caliber they need to be professionally cleaned and preserved. We chose to preserve this backdrop because it is in good shape and because of the information on it. The cost could be as much as $2,000. The other backdrop has some water damage and we do not know the cost to preserve it. Donations are being collected to preserve this backdrop and hang it in our Social Hall. If you can help by making a donation, please contact the office or put donation in an envelope marked 'BACKDROP RESTORATION' in the weekend collection.
