3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time January 26th, 2014

First Reading Isaiah 8:23-9:3
Psalms 27 "The Lord is my light and my salvation."
Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17
Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

A recurring theme in this year's scriptures is the theme of light. We heard it repeatedly during Christmas time, again in last week's reading, and now in the first reading and Gospel. The people who walked or dwelt or sat in darkness have seen a great light. In what darkness do we still dwell? What light does Jesus bring to us when he says, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand"?

St. Vincent de Paul Society

We are collecting money for St. Vincent de Paul Society in Faribault to help the needy in our area. If you would like to donate, make the check to either St. Patrick - with 'St. Vincent' on the memo line OR make the check directly to St. Vincent and drop it in the collection basket. WE will make sure that St. Vincent receives all donations. Thank you (see KC Korner for information on a fundraiser.)

A Note From The Pastor

I Can't Wait....

There was a crowd in the doctor's waiting room. An elderly gentleman rose from his seat and approached the receptionist and said courteously, "Madam, my appointment was at 10:00am and it is almost eleven now. I cannot wait any longer. Would you kindly give me an appointment for another day?" After watching the man's impatient behavior, one woman in the crowd leaned over to another and said, "He must be at least 80 years old. What sort of urgent business can he have that he cannot afford to wait?" The man overheard the whispered remark and he turned to the lady and said, "I am 87 years old, which is precisely the reason why I cannot afford to waste a single minute of the precious time I have left."

Very often, people young and old, want to rush through life. We hear them say, "I can't wait." As we grow older, we begin to realize how quickly life moves. We also realize how precious and important each moment is. We see people who give advice to others such as "enjoy life to the fullest because you can't believe how quickly it will pass." A parent who sits at a daughter's wedding can't help but reminisce about the bride as a baby in diapers. When we view an old photo we might ask, "was I ever that young?"

Today more than ever we seem to be a people in a hurry. We marvel at the great speed that our life is moving. But what happens to us when we move with a hurried and speedy world is that we will fail to see the beauty of life and the majesty of this world around us. We live in a world full of beauty. Our lives are full of ordinary miracles. While Jesus walked among us, he saw the glory of lilies in the field and the sparrow in flight. He participated in very ordinary religions, social and family events. His business never prevented him to go to the Synagogue worship on Sabbath, to be with children and visiting friends.

Life is full of mystery and beauty. In our rushing so rapidly through our days we miss most of them. It is so good to be alive. It is so good to love people and God's creation. It is so good to be loved too.

Do you have trouble hearing Father during his homily, or are you just hard of hearing? The hearing assistance radio is now working perfectly. Go to your favorite store and purchase a personal radio with headphones. At church, tune them to 106.1 and hear everything crystal clear. Feel free to adjust the volume.
