First Sunday in Lent February 14, 2016

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:4-10
Psalm 91 "Be with me Lord,
                  when I am in trouble."
Second Reading: Romans 10:8-13
Gospel: Luke 4:1-13

In the first reading we hear Moses admonishing the Israelites to recall all that God has done for them when they bring their offering to the Lord. Saint Paul adds that "no one who believes in him will be put to shame." And Jesus, at the end of his desert experience, is ready to encounter the devil and his temptations. Allow these scriptures to prepare us for our Lenten encounter with God this year.

A Word from Father Victor ...

The Works of Mercy

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead. Among all of these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God.

In its various forms...human misery is the obvious sign of the inherited condition of frailty. And need for salvation in which man finds himself as a consequence of original sin. This misery elicited the compassion of Christ the Savior, who willingly took it upon himself and identified himself with the least of his brethren. Hence, those who are oppressed by poverty are the object of a preferential love on the part of the Church which, since her origin and in spite of the failings of many of her members, has not ceased to work for their relief, defense, and liberation through numerous works of charity which remain indispensable always and everywhere. (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2447-2448)

Corporal Works of Mercy

- To feed the hungry
- To give drink to the thirsty
- To clothe the naked
- To shelter the homeless
- To visit the sick
- To visit the imprisoned
- To bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

- To instruct the ignorant
- To counsel the doubtful
- To admonish sinners
- To bear wrongs patiently
- To forgive offences willingly
- To comfort the afflicted
- To pray for the living and the dead

Catholic Services Appeal

I received this from Jennifer Beaudry, CSA Director concerning some of the good work done by CSA.

Hi all,

We just received this great video of Bill Dill at the Archdiocesan Marriage, Family and Life Offices talking about the "Snow Mass" on the Pennsylvania turnpike. Bill led the group of students who went to the 2016 March for Life in Washington, DC. and then ended up stuck in the snow. This is amazing work being done by the Office of Marriage, Family and Life and this is just one example of Catholic Services Appeal dollars at work!

What beautiful readings we enjoyed for Sunday's kick-off for Catholic Schools Week! Listening to Rachel Rynda read First Corinthians 13, I was reminded again of what an opportunity we have at HRS for students to learn in a context that allows them to develop their minds and their hearts; to advance in math, art, and all of the other academic areas -- and to speak of faith, hope, and love.

"So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love." -- 1 Corinthians 13:12-13
