First Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44
Psalm 145 "The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs".

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6
Gospel: John 6:1-15

The psalm refrain is a good summary of the word of God that we will hear proclaimed: "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." As you listen to the words proclaimed, be mindful of all the ways that the Lord feeds us, especially through our brothers and sisters around us.

To do Christ's work, seek him in prayer

Jesus knows our needs, and because he is our one true shepherd, his heart is moved with pity for us. He desires all of us to gather to him as his sheep. In the July 19 Gospel reading, the disciples have just returned home from mission after having been sent out. They went to tell Jesus about the work they have accomplished in his name. They were so busy that they didn't even have time to eat. Jesus invites them to come away with him to a "deserted place."

Jesus has given each of us a mission; he has work for each of us to do. All of our work and actions must be rooted in Christ. Our service to neighbor in must be focused on Christ. No matter what it is that the Lord has called each of us to do, it has to find its beginning and end in prayer. Jesus calls us just as he called his disciples to "come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while" (Mark 6:31).

The deserted place is prayer. Jesus desires for us to come away with him and rest. Just as we spend time with anyone we love, we need to spend time with Jesus. Take time each day to pray, even if it's only for 10 minutes. If you're able, please consider praying before the Eucharist. We are so blessed in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis to have many Eucharistic adoration chapels. These chapels are our deserted places where Jesus waits for us in the Blessed Sacrament to come and simply be with him.

Our Lord desires to gather us around himself in the Eucharist. He wants the center of our lives to be him. If our work or outreach is not centered on the Eucharist, then it is not the work of Christ. It is in the sacrifice of the Mass that we find our strength and are sent out on mission. All our actions should come from the Eucharist and lead back to the Eucharist, "the source and summit of the Christian life" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1324). We encounter Jesus in a very real way in the most Blessed Sacrament. Jesus, who didn't even have time to eat because of the crowds, feeds us with his own Body and Blood. It is in the Eucharist that Jesus, the one true shepherd, gathers all his lambs together into one flock.

Summer Is Here!
Welcome Visitors!

My Dear Friends,

"Sing Loud and Long" this is a notice to let you know that I will be on a medical sabbatical for approximately 2 months.

Sing with great joy for Sharon Kaisershot, as she has graciously and very kindly agreed to fill in for me during my absence. My hope is to be back pounding those keys by the first of October. Unfortunately, this does indeed affect the "Women's Summer Show". We are doing some creative thinking about how to present our show later in the year ... You will not want to miss it! It is all about Broadway.

Thank you for your lovely voices!
Cindy

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated the third week of July as NFP Awareness Week. NFP stands for Natural Family Planning, and offers a scientific and marriage-building opportunity by learning about one's fertility. NFP Awareness Week supports couples by bringing awareness of spousal love. This year NFP Week runs July 19-26. These dates include the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) the feast of St. Joachim and St. Anne (July 26). Human life is a beautiful gift and is to be cherished. Join us in a novena for a Rebirth of Chastity and Purity. The novena will begin July 18 and conclude on the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne. A copy of this novena can be found on the NFP Awareness Week page at archspm.org/archspm_events.
