10th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 9, 2013

| | | |
|-----------------------|--|----------|
| First Reading | 1 Kings | 17:17-24 |
| Psalm 110 | "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me." | |
| Second Reading | Galatians | 1:11-19 |
| Gospel: | Luke | 7:11-17 |

Shortly we will hear two stories about raising from the dead. In the first the prophet Elijah calls upon the Lord God to restore to life a child. In the second, Jesus himself commands the dead man to arise. Listening to these readings, we know that our God is the God of life. How might God be calling you to rise from the dead?

Do you have trouble hearing Father's homily, or are you just hard of hearing?

The hearing assistance radio is now working perfectly. Go to you favorite store and purchase a personal radio with headphones. When you get to church tune them to 106.1 and hear everything crystal clear. Feel free to adjust the volume while listening to the Mass.

From the Desk of the Pastor....

A French king is said to have stated, "The crown of France is worth a Mass a week." In reality, he cared little about religion, but since all France was Catholic, as king he had to go to church on Sunday. We could liken this to a modern teenager thinking, "The keys to the family car for my date are worth that Mass on Sunday."

There are various reasons why the faithful observe religious obligations. Some do it out of fear. One never knows what will happen to the other side of the grave, so they want to play safe. Others calculate like the Pharisees of Jesus' time, they are righteous people diligently observing the laws of their religion and they expect God to give them salvation in return. However, love and gratitude should be the principal motivation, not calculation and fear, and not certainly commercial considerations. In the Promised Land, the Hebrews celebrated the Passover. Their motivation was not to get something. They offered their lambs as a sign of gratitude to God almighty. Eucharist in the New Testament reminds us of this. It is a memorial meal and it recalls to our minds all that Jesus did for us.

Eucharist is a sacrificial meal as it is a sacrifice of Jesus for the whole humanity. It is the culmination of His self-emptying. It is a thanksgiving meal as we remember and thank God for the abundance of blessings received. It is a meal of unity as it unites us with Christ and with one another. So, our Sunday Eucharist is not an obligation fulfilling spirituality, but a life giving spiritual experience. People come to Mass not to fulfill an obligation but because they need Jesus and because they need one another. They are there because they need Jesus and one another.

The celebration of the Eucharist implies serious challenges and obligations for Christians. First it implies a felt need to participate in the Eucharist as an expression of our gratitude to God. Second, it supplies a meaningful and fruitful celebration of the Eucharist. Third, participation is not an obligation that we fulfill, but our God-ward journey. Fourth, reminding one-self that a Eucharistic celebration is incomplete unless we try to live the celebration in life. Finally, willingness to make self-sacrifices by offering our gifts, time, talents, etc. for the benefit of the community.

Pope Benedict XVI spoke last year about his worry that religious liberty in the United States is being weakened. He called religious liberty the "most cherished of American freedoms." Is our most cherished freedom truly under threat? Look for a series of Liberty Lessons from Memorial Day through the July 4th highlighting the urgent need to Pray, Learn, and Act on defending our religious liberty.

Liberty Lessons

What do we mean by religious liberty?

Religious liberty is the first liberty granted to us by God and protected in the First Amendment to our Constitution. It includes more than our ability to go to Mass on Sunday or pray the Rosary at home. It also encompasses our ability to contribute freely to the common good of all Americans.

Learn more – Plan on attending the Freedom Forum on June 22, 2013 at the Church of St. Peter, 1405 Hwy 13 in Mendota.

Curtain Call Theatre award-winning show coming to St. Patrick in July

The community theatre is taking its award-winning, "The Great Nursing Home Escape" to area communities. The theatre group won the Outstanding Ensemble Award from the Minnesota Association of Community Theatres (MACT) in March when it entered the MACT Fest 2013 for the first time with "The Great Nursing Home Escape". In April, the theatre group approved Director Andy Velishek to take the show on the road to area venues.

The play is about a locked-down nursing home., During the dead of night its residents attempt the greatest escape ever. Audiences will join this misfit band of "inmates" as they hatch a master plan to escape their dreary nursing home and find something far more important than a baseball game – they find their youth.

"The show is a fantastic family show for ALL ages," Velishek said. "It is about a group of folks trying to bust out of their nursing home to see a baseball game. Come see it to find out if they do! Even better, the nursing home residents are played by kids! That's right, old people played by kids!"

"The Great Nursing Home Escape" shows.

June 8 - Elko-New Market Library, 5 p.m.

June 22 - W-E-M High School, 2 p.m.

July 14 - St. Patrick, Shieldsville, 1 p.m.

August 10- Lonsdale Community Days, 1 p.m.

There is No charge for admission, but free-will offerings will be accepted. A light lunch will be available 11:30 a.m. - Noon for a free-will offering.

Don't forget St. Patrick when you go on vacation. We need your continued support through-out the year. Set up electronic withdrawal of donations or take care of it before you leave.

Rediscover: Summer Share Project

Wednesday, May 22, 2013

The idea behind the Rediscover: Summer Share Project is simple: provide a quick and easy way to connect the people we know and meet with the resources of Rediscover: And there is no time like summer to do just that!

Summer is the time of year when we get out and connect with friends, family and neighbors – and even meet new people:

- Up to the lake, graduation parties, reunions, picnics and weddings with friends and family
- Backyard BBQs and impromptu chats with our neighbors
- Travel and meet new people on our trip

Connect people you know and meet to Rediscover: resources

Both Rediscover-faith.org and mobile app offer over 400 short videos and brief articles about God, what it means to be in relationship with Jesus Christ, the Bible – and all about the Catholic Church – what we believe and why, plus more than 150 prayers and even a handy Mass, Confession and Adoration finder. All of these resources are designed to lead – with great love and joy – to the Way, the Truth and the Life of Jesus Christ and the Church he founded over 2,000 years ago.

There are two main Summer Share tools to connect people with these great resources.

- Rediscover: Share Card. This handy card is the size of a standard business card, so it's easy to store in your wallet or purse.
- On one side is the web address Rediscover-faith.org plus a QR code that you can scan with a smartphone and go straight to the home site for Rediscover.

- On the other side of the card is the web address and a QR code to take people to Rediscoverapp.com, where anyone can download the free Rediscover app for iPhone, iPad and Android devices.
- Consider committing to give out just TWO of these cards to someone you know or meet before the end of the summer.

The Rediscover: Share Card is a quick and easy way to connect the people you know and meet to the resources of Rediscover.

2. Share Features on both the web site and the app - with the push of a button. Did you know that you can send a link to any article, video or prayer on the web site or app with the push of a button? It's easy to do.

- If you want to send something via social media, just click on the icon of your choice that corresponds to what you want to use to share – Facebook, Twitter, plus a many other options under the SHARE button with the orange and white plus sign icon.
- Or just send a good old-fashioned email with a link to the article you want to share to a friend of family member...just click on the SHARE button and then select email from the dropdown menu.
- It's just as easy to share on the Rediscover: app – just touch button the right top corner of the phone screen and follow the prompts.

Share Rediscover: resources with the touch of a button. By connecting the people you know and meet using the Rediscover: Share Card, plus the web site and app share feature, you're doing something small that may grow into something big. It may just be the seed that blossoms into a friend or family member – or someone you've just met – returning to full life in the faith.

So, let's get out there this summer, connect with people we know and meet – and share the faith by connecting to the many resources of Rediscover!
