14th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 7, 2013

First Reading Isaiah 66:10-14c
Psalm 66 "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."
Second Reading Galatians 6:14-18
Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

"The Kingdom of God is at hand for you" is the message Jesus tells his disciples to proclaim to the places where they are sent. In the first reading we hear a description of the comfort to be found in that kingdom. Over the past few weeks we have heard about the cost of discipleship. For those who repent, the kingdom is at hand, and we are given a glimpse of the rewards of discipleship. Let us find inspiration in God's word to proclaim the kingdom.

Special Remembrance on Sunday ...

Mass on Sunday is for Pam Rose Kolb Campbell. She is the sister of Paul (Pat) Kolb. She passed away 20 years ago on July 8th at the age of 44. Pam's birthday was June 29th. Her children and grandchildren join us as we remember Pam during our Sunday Mass.

The next Baptism Class is Sat., July 6th at Most Holy Redeemer Church in Montgomery at 9:30 a.m. Classes are required IF this is your first child or it has been more than 2 years since your last class. Call 507.364.7981 to register.

From the Desk of the Pastor....

In the Gospel, Jesus lays down the conditions for following Him. The life of a disciple of Christ is insecure and uncertain. "Foxes have lairs, the birds of the sky have nests, and the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." Jesus invites people to follow Him. They seem willing, but then they make their excuses. Jesus' reply may seem harsh to us. "Let the dead bury the dead, come away and proclaim the Kingdom of God." It is a question of priorities-of who and what is essential in life-God and His work or one's own personal needs and desires. Jesus has called each of us to follow Him in a particular vocation. This takes a new way of living, new way of thinking. God has provided for all our needs, so focused on our eternal destination, let us continue on our Journey following His directions.

Parish Country Picnic – October 6th!

Please pick up your Raffle Tickets!

Your envelope of Country Picnic Raffle Tickets is available before and after Masses in the narthex or in the office during office hours. We ask each registered family to purchase or sell at least 70 Raffle Tickets. You may think $70 is a lot but add up the tickets you purchased and items you brought to the festival in the past and financially it is not much more. Because of the Gambling Control Board and Archdiocesan Financial Controls your Tickets MUST be paid for when you pick them up. If you wish, we will hold your check until October 6th to give you time to sell your tickets. If you choose to sell all of your tickets they will not cost you anything. We do not ask a great deal from our families so please help out now. Last year this proved to be a success. We look for even better sales this year. Thank you for supporting your Parish in this, our biggest fundraiser. Your help is truly appreciated!!!

Patrick on July 14th 1 p.m.

The play is about a locked-down nursing home. "The show is a fantastic family show for ALL ages," Andy Velishek (director) said. "It is about a group of folks trying to bust out of their nursing home to see a baseball game. Come see it to find out if they do! Even better, the nursing home residents are played by kids!" Lunch available 11:30 – 12:30 for a free-will offering. No charge for admission, free-will offerings will be accepted.

It's amazing what a little color can do! This summer, Rick is busy updating several of our classrooms with a coat of paint. The fresh paint in each of these four rooms adds such beauty to the walls. I look forward to seeing the smiles on students' faces as they enter these colored classrooms this fall.

Preschool – Little Lambs: Did you know Most Holy Redeemer offers a 2 & 3 day, all day preschool program? New in 2013 is a SMART room, created especially for preschool use. In this room we will have a large jungle gym and tricycles to build young muscles. We will also have a small computer lab and many learning activities planned for youngest students.

During their day, Little Lambs' students work on social skill development and kindergarten readiness skills while strengthening their body, mind and spirit.

We do have limited openings remaining in our Little Lambs classes. To learn more, call 507-364-7383. (Half day class options available as well as extended daycare past 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.)
